

I listen to K-LOVE everyday in my car and it is very inspirational and calming. To have this programming replaced by an LPFM, or have priority over an FM station such as K-LOVE, would be tragic. This is the main station that I listen to, as well as many others in my area, and I would not want to be without it.